*☾ The beginning and end of Ramadan are subject to the sighting of the New Moon

Foods to cut down	Healthy / Alternative foods
Deep fried foods eg. Pakoras, Samosas, fried dumplings	Whole grains eg. chick peas, baked samosas, boiled dumplings
Indian sweets such as Ghulab Jamun, Rasgullay, Baklava	Milk-based sweets and puddings such as Rasmalai, Barfee
High fat foods eg. parhattas, oily curries, greasy pastries	Chapattis without oil, grilled meat/chicken or preferably fish
Cakes, biscuits, chocolates, sweets	Olives, dates, figs, cucumber, lentils
Tea, Coffee, Fizzy drinks eg. Cola	Plain water, juices

Suhoor, the pre-dawn meal, should be a wholesome, moderate meal that is filling and provides enough energy for many hours. It is therefore particularly important to include slowly-digesting foods in the suhoor.

Iftar is the meal which breaks the day's fast. Dates will provide a refreshing burst of much needed energy. Fruit juices will also have a similar, revitalising effect. The meal should remain a meal and not become a feast!

“Eat of the good and wholesome things that We have provided for your sustenance, but indulge in no excess therein.” Qur’ān (20:81)
